

Artists--Is your passion painting landscapes, drawing people, creating assemblages from found objects, or photographing nature?

Visual arts of all mediums are now being sought by the Agora Board for the bi-annual publication of The Agora, which showcases PLATO member's creative work.

Submit up to three pieces combined of visual art, poetry, or other written work. Submissions to be published will be chosen by a blind jury orchestrated by the Agora Board.

Check the PLATO website for more information including how to submit photos of your work. The deadline is February 28, 2019
