

Want to share your ideas and insights with other PLATO members? Why not submit an essay to The Agora, PLATO's arts and literary magazine (<http://www.platomadison.org/agora-submission-invitation>)?

An essay is generally considered to be a short work of nonfiction that reflects a personal point of view.

For example, you might write about how art enriches your life or how a walk in the woods restores your soul. In addition, you could comment on your concerns about the environment or human rights.

We welcome essays on a wide variety of topics including the arts, history, science, and philosophy.
